JANUARY 2015 - No. 85

HAPPY NEW YEAR

A new year, a new start, new ideas and a new way of operating. That is FAIRVIEW TOURING. Change can be good for everyone although I believe not all welcome it. Here are some of the changes.

1. We have said goodbye to our trusted old friend the VW Kombi as we sold it on 5 January. This vehicle has served us very well for some 8 years and we have clocked up more than 230000 kilometres in her. It was sad to see her go.

2. You may now ask how are we going to travel in the future? Well last year when we had some engine snags we chartered a vehicle from another operator who has a charter division. The tour went well. Therefore we will be chartering vehicles as and when we need them. The first tour under this arrangement in 2015 will be the trip to the Wild Coast in February.

3. I have also purchased a 4X4 Toyota Fortuner which will be used when we only have a handful of passengers. The first event will be our trip to Sutherland in January (postponed from November) as we only have 3 passengers.

4. Another change is that we will not be preparing a long list of tours and then attempting to sell the programmes. Instead there are two ways which we wish to pursue. a) If you would like to go to a particular place or do a tour to your favourite destination we welcome your suggestion. We will then advertise the option to see if there are others interested in the same destination. We will then set up the tour. b) If you have a group of friends who wish to travel together on a special route or to a specific destination, we will set up the tour for you. (This has worked very well in the past and we encourage you to get a group together.) Put on your thinking caps and let us know as soon as possible!
